Re: Mr Andrew 'Andy Rails' Railton.

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Adam Elliot, and I am writing to referee and endorse Andrew Railton. I employed Andy on my recent feature animated film, 'Memoir Of A Snail'. From day one I was impressed with his obvious experience, multiple talents and skill sets. He has an exemplary work ethic and I have rarely come across someone so professional in the world of cinematography. He is extremely organised, efficient and proactive. He is a lateral thinker and adept problem solver. He is humble, courteous, a good communicator, easily leads a group, and is completely trustworthy.

On my film he excelled at the following :

Establish camera department technical workflows specifically for the animation process.
Light sets and scenes according to the creative needs of the script.
Block through coverage & decide on camera placement in collaboration with DP, Director and Animator.
Assist the DP and other Lighting camera operators with grip and lighting needs as required.
Manage the day to day operations of camera assistants.
Manage technical aspects of the camera systems and lenses.

He has specialised skills but seems to easily adapt and work in other departments. Apart from being a hardworking individual, he is also a true gentleman and I have no hesitation in acting as his referee. I would work with Andy again in a heart beat. Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have about him.

Sincerely,

Adam Elliot.
